LWL and Hamish acknowledge the Traditional Owners of Country throughout Australia on which he lives and works. Hamish is based in Narrm and pays his respect to the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin Nation, their cultures, their elders past, present and emerging.

Hamish prioritises inclusive and diverse filmmaking and this is at the forefront of his mind when bringing together a team for each project they work on. Hamish is passionate about creating and supporting safe and progressive workplaces and encourages conversations on how this can be best achieved on each project he works on.

Hamish is an active participant in the MEAA (Media, Entertainment & Arts Alliance) and works under the booking guidelines of Freelancers promotions which can be found here: <https://freelancers.com.au/booking-guidelines>
