Career Overview

LISA WANG (王兴月) is a producer with over 30 years' experience in television and feature films. She works regularly as a producer and line producer for Australia's leading independent production companies. She has worked with international co-producers and broadcasters in the UK, USA, Germany, and Italy, and for all of Australia's broadcast networks. Lisa has also produced, written, and directed award-winning documentaries, museum installations, corporate communications and produced TVCs for her own company Black Sheep Films, a small yet energetic production house established in 1982 by her late husband and producer, Andrew McVitty.

Lisa's heart lies in the development and production of scripted and unscripted content that gives voice to the misrepresented and the underrepresented.

She began her TV career as a production accountant on the hit ABC TV comedy series Frontline, and also worked as a special effects co-ordinator and art department co-ordinator before firmly establishing herself as a production manager, line producer and producer.

Lisa's best-known credits include the new bold, outrageous comedy series White Fever (ABC), the multi-award winning Please Like Me (ABC/Pivot/Hulu/Netflix), Frayed (ABC/Sky Vision/Sky Comedy), The Family Law (SBS). Lisa's drama credits as line producer include horror feature Late Night with The Devil (2024), Healing (2014), and period telemovies Dangerous Remedy, The Doctor Blake Mysteries and The Blake Mysteries (7 Network).

Her production manager credits range from the crime thriller feature Sleeping Dogs (2024) starring Russell Crowe, scripted ABC comedy series The Hollowmen, Lowdown and Woodley, romantic crime drama Fat Tony & Co (Nine Network), live TV panel show Santo, Sam & Ed's Cup Fever (SBS) and improvised comedy series Thank God You're Here (Network Ten).

As a documentary maker, Lisa wrote, directed and produced Reunion (SBS). She was invited to the IDFA, Amsterdam 1998 as a First Appearance Director. The film is an award-winning exploration of belonging and cultural identity as a Chinese Australian. Her documentary P.S. I Love You (ABC), followed urban adolescent girls leaving their families to spend a year in a high school campus in the rugged high country of Victoria. Lisa also produced Trevor Graham's MIFF Premiere Fund feature documentaries Monsieur Mayonnaise (MIFF2016 + Berlinale 2017) and Chef Antonio's Recipes for Revolution (MIFF2021).

Lisa is the Director of Screen for the Chinese Museum. She is the producer and curator of Screen Presence: a not-for-profit initiative aimed at amplifying, encouraging and inspiring Asian Australian voices to escalate their representation in the screen industry – and importantly, entertain and share their unique stories with mainstream audiences. This includes quarterly Next Gen meetings throughout the year, dedicated to connecting, mentoring, placement and supporting Victorian-based Asian Australian screen practitioners within the mainstream industry.
