Bio

Penny Dickinson is an Australian based costume designer of TV, Film and commercials. Penny has a diverse list of credits to her name including a 2021 AACTA nomination for her costume design on the 1960's period murder mystery, Ms Fishers Modern.

With a background in Fashion and styling, it was a natural transition to explore and study costume design, expressing and following her creative vision by bringing the character to life. Penny is well known and highly regarded in the commercial and television industry with regular national and international clients.

Her great skill is the ability to connect deeply with the story, the actors, directors, and producers to find the detail and essence of the characters through their costume. Stories of family, youth, life obstacles and diversity are themes that resonate through Penny's choice of project and ultimately shape her career and unique design.
